

Booking form

30 years on; The Future of the Health and Safety Commission

30th Anniversary of the HSC Conference
8th November 2004 TUC Congress Centre,
Great Russell Street, London WC1B 3LS

Registration Fees:

- Trade unions £25.00
- Not for profit organisations £35.00
- Other organisations £50.00

To register please fill in this form and send it with a cheque to HSC Conference, Health and Safety Unit, OSD, TUC, Congress House, London
WC1B 3LS.

Cheques should be made payable to "TUC"

Name

Organisation

Address

Tel no

e-mail

Because of the numbers, lunch will not be provided although there are a considerable number of places to eat in the vicinity.
Congress House is wheelchair accessible. Please let us know if you have any access requirements.

The closing date for applications is 29th
October. You will receive confirmation and conference details prior to the event.

This programme has been sponsored by Irwin Mitchell Solicitors.

30 years on; The Future of the Health and Safety Commission

8th November, 2004
10.00am - 4.15pm

Supported by irwinmitchell^(IM)
solicitors

30 years on; The Future of the Health and Safety Commission

The 8th November, 2004

To mark the 30th Anniversary of the Health and Safety at Work Act and the establishment of the Health and Safety Commission (HSC), the TUC is organising a major conference on the main issues facing the HSC.

This conference is designed for policy makers, trade unionists, managers, health and safety professionals, academics, and others with an interest in health and safety.

Speakers

- Dr Janet Asherson, Head of Environment, CBI.
- Brendan Barber, General Secretary of the TUC.
- Gary Booton, Director, Health, Safety and Environment, Engineering Employers Federation.
- Paula Brown, Secretary, HSE branch of PCS.
- Bill Callaghan, Chair of the HSC.
- Kevin Curran is General Secretary of the GMB union.
- David Eves, former Deputy Director General of the HSE.
- Steve Kay, Secretary of the HSE Prospect branch and an HSE inspector.
- Phil James, Professor of Employment Relations at Middlesex University.
- Rt Hon Jane Kennedy MP, Minister of State for Work and Pensions.
- Rory O'Neill, Editor of Hazards Magazine
- David Walters, TUC Professor of Work Environment at Cardiff University;

Programme

9:00-10:00 Coffee and Registration.

10:00 Welcome - Chair - Danny Carrigan, Assistant General Secretary Amicus / HSC Commissioner.

10:10 Overview - Brendan Barber.

10:30 Keynote Address Rthon - Jane Kenedy MP. The Governments Strategy on Health & Safety.

11:00 The Employers Perspective - Janet Asherson and Gary Booton. The Employers Perspective on the Government Strategy.

11:30 The Last 30 Years - Professor David Walters.

11:50 The View from Inside - Paula Brown.

12:10 Discussion.

12:30 Lunch.

13:30 The HSC Strategy - Bill Callaghan.

14:00 Kevin Curran.

14:20 Health and Safety Progress and Policy Since "Revitalising" - Professor Phil James.

14:40 Q&A session.

15:00 Coffee.

15:20 The Future - Rory O'Neill and Steve Kay. Their views on what we need for the future.

15:50 Conclusions - David Eves summarises the various points that have been raised and outlines where he thinks the HSC should be going.

16:15 Close.