

ONLINE ON ZOOM
(VIDEO CONFERENCING APP)

WAVENEY MAYDAY FESTIVAL online – Saturday 2nd May

MUSIC / POETRY / FILM

AFTERNOON – HOSTED BY DEAN PARKIN

- 2.00pm POEMS & FILM: Dean Parkin
A celebration of Suffolk people & their working lives including Dean's new short film Year at Little Cote Farm, which follows a Carlton Colville farmer through the seasons.
- 2.40pm MUSIC: Roop Butlin (solo) of Murphy's Law and This Machine Hates Fascists.
- 3.00pm SOLIDARITY REVUE:
WRITERS, POETS & OTHER VOICES / POLITICAL HARANGUE + OPEN MIC
Including writers from Swan Poets (Halesworth) and Fresh Words New Voices (Lowestoft) and Beccles Poetry Circle.
Music from Keith Kryant, David Ingham (sax solo) & Stephen Mynott (guitar solo)
- 4.00pm MUSIC: John Ward Band (duo)
Powerful harmonies and traditional tunes, alongside John's own finely crafted songs including some from his recent album, Life Drawing.

FINISH APPROX 4-30pm

EVENING – HOSTED BY DEAN PARKIN

- 7.00pm MUSIC: Hugh Stanners & Friends from Brighton
- 7.40pm MUSIC: Jon Griffin (duo): Twenty-One Crows
Jon used to front a math rock band featured on John Peel but now fronts an experimental post folk quartet of guitars and accordion
- 8.20pm MUSIC: JASON WICK
A solo set from the front man of Little Red Kings, the Norfolk band that specialise in classic rock blues with strong melodies and elements of modern alternative rock.

FINISH APPROX 9-00

CELEBRATING SOLIDARITY ON INTERNATIONAL WORKERS DAY

Organised by Waveney TUC and friends