

Come to the East London May Day Festival which has been organised by Waltham Forest, Newham and Redbridge Trades Councils on Monday 2 May - with great acts and speakers!

There will be a short rally in Walthamstow Town Square starting at around 7.00pm. This will be followed by a march – led by two pipers – to the Rose & Crown Theatre pub, 53 Hoe Street Walthamstow London E17 4SA – which is the venue for the Festival. The Festival will start between 7.30-7.45pm.

Amongst the performers at the Festival will be:

- Grace Petrie ( <http://gracepetrie.com/> )
- Maddy Carty ( <http://www.maddycartymusic.com/> )
- Chip Grim ( <https://www.facebook.com/GrimChippoet/> )

Speakers include:

- John Cryer, MP (Leyton & Wanstead)
- Stella Creasy, MP, (Walthamstow) - invited
- Nicola Hawkins, (Secretary, SERTUC Young Members Network)
- Steve Hedley, (Assistant General Secretary, Rail, Maritime and Transport Workers/President, Newham Trades Council),
- Zita Holbourne (Black Activists Rising Against Cuts)
- Dr Niki Fitzgerald, (British Medical Association) - invited
- Matt Wrack, (General Secretary, Fire Brigades Union)
- Steve White, (Secretary, WF National Union of Teachers)
- Linda Taaffe, (Secretary, WF Trades Council)
- Rob Williams, (Chair, National Shop Stewards Network)

Entry is free - but a collection will be taken for a number of “good causes”.

In addition to the three Trades Councils organising the Festival, it is also supported by Leyton & Wanstead Labour Party. Please share amongst friends, union members, contacts, etc in the East London area.
