

Waveney May Day Festival

The Seagull Theatre,
Morton Rd, Lowestoft

Sunday 1st & Monday 2nd May 2016

FREE EVENT (except admission for films)

SUNDAY

JOIN US TO CELEBRATE MAYDAY INTERNATIONAL WORKERS' DAY...
SAYING NO TO AUSTERITY.....SOLIDARITY RULES OK!!

- 3pm start main auditorium
- Slides of Old Lowestoft and Kirkley (Main Theatre): - Chris Brooks - Chair of Suffolk Pensioners Association. (with Buffet)
- Solidarity Revue in the Theatre Foyer (intermixing Poetry, Speech & Music)
- 3-45 pm Meg Burrows - Folk Music & Poetry
- 4-15pm Guest Speakers: - including Richard Howitt (East of England MEP) and Bianca Todd of Community Courtyard Northampton
- Writers & Poets - Claire Hamburger, Olly Watson, Mike Bannister
- Amnesty International Perspectives & Poetry: - Sonia Barker
- 5-30 pm John Ward & Friends Sing Solidarity Protest Songs
- 6-pm Palestinian Film: WHERE SHOULD THE BIRDS FLY? - (Free)
Introduced by Saber El Shunnar
- 7-30 Film: STILL THE ENEMY WITHIN - (£3 admission). A British film Documentary on social division during the 1984/85 Miners Strike -
Introduced by Bianca Todd with Rep from Bad Bonobo Film team

MONDAY

CLIMATE CHANGE: THE CHALLENGE FOR HUMANITY

- 6pm : East Norfolk 6th Form College Present Social Theatre
- 7-30pm Film: - THIS CHANGES EVERYTHING (£3 admission)
Directed by Avi Lewis this International Documentary based on the writings of Naomi Klein and her ideas on climate change, with introduction by Environmental Activists

THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING THIS EVENT.

Supported by: Waveney TUC; Suffolk Pensioners' Association; Lowestoft Coalition Against the Cuts