11am to 3pm

Palmerston Park, Southampton Centre, SO14 1ND

Between Pound Tree, Palmerston and New Roads, and Above Bar Street

A family-friendly event with a short celebratory march, music, poetry, speakers, stalls and food.

There will be a large marquee in case of bad weather.

11am	Assemble at Bandstand
11.15am	March from Bandstand to Peace Fountain. The past the Cenotaph and walk down to Bargate and return through the parks to the Bandstand
Midday	Grand opening on stage followed by a variety of music, speakers and poetry, etc. Indian food will be on sale. Local trade union, left and progressive groups will have stalls.
3pm	CLOSE

Following a successful May Day Celebration in 2016 this year's family-friendly event is again co-ordinated by local groups, Southampton Trades Union Council, Unite Community and People's Assembly Against Austerity.

The cost of staging the event is considerable and contributions from trade unions, other groups and individuals would be appreciated.
