

Order of Business

TUC Young Workers Conference 2017

SATURDAY 25 March

10.30 – Registration opens

11.00 – Welcome Reception for women delegates and visitors

12.00 – Lunch

13.00 – Opening session of conference (including guest speakers)

- Craig Dawson – Chair, Young Workers Forum
- Keir Starmer MP – Shadow Secretary of State for Exiting the European Union
- Mary Bousted – TUC President (presenting the TUC Youth Campaign Award)

14.00 – Workshops (the workshops will be held twice, delegates will be asked to select two workshops on registration)

- Innovating with young workers – Good Innovation
- Organising apprentices – NUS & PCS
- Brexit and young people – TUC office

16.30 – First formal session of conference (incl. election of tellers)

- Election of tellers and scrutineers
- Election of TUC Young Workers Forum chair

16.45 Motions

EMPLOYMENT, ECONOMY AND EQUALITY

1. Equality is not a luxury – UNISON

2. Housing – USDAW

3. Job security and young workers – NASUWT

4. Apprentices – PCS

Amendment from ATL

Amendment from UNISON

Replaced by Composite A – Apprentices

5. Apprentices and public procurement – UCATT

6. The Living Wage for Under-25s – RMT
Amendment from PCS
7. The Alternative Old Boys Network – Equity
8. Protecting freelance workers – Musicians’ Union
9. Maritime training and industry growth – Nautilus International

18.30 – Close of conference business

19.00 – Evening Social, Council Chamber, 5th floor (to 10.00pm)

SUNDAY 26 March

10.00 – Antonia Bance, Head of Campaigns and Communications, TUC

10.30 – Second Formal Session of Conference (Motions)

YOUNG WORKERS AND UNIONS

10. Organising young workers in precarious employment – Unite
11. Trade unions and education - GMB
12. Precarious employment – Community

PUBLIC SERVICES

13. Fair Education for All – NUT
Amendment from USDAW
14. Disability cuts – CWU
15. Junior doctors – whistleblowing – HCSA

TUC AND CONSTITUTION

16. Change to Rule 37: Motion calling for digital voting at the TUC Young Workers Conference – Prospect

CONGRESS MOTION AND PRIORITY CAMPAIGNS

- Selection of motion to send to TUC Congress 2017
- Selection of priority campaigns for TUC Young Workers Forum

VOTE OF THANKS AND CLOSE OF CONFERENCE

Motions are grouped together when they address a particular issue. After each motion has been moved and seconded, all motions in the group will be open to debate. This means that delegates can speak to any of the motions in the group. After the debate, the chair will move to a vote on each motion in the group.