

WORLD AIDS DAY SEMINAR

TUC

1 December 2009 9.30–12.30 followed by buffet lunch
Congress House, Great Russell Street, London WC1

“I want to live my rights in the workplace”

A worker being tested for HIV/AIDS

WORLD AIDS DAY SEMINAR

This seminar will highlight and celebrate the role of trade unions in defending the interests and rights of affected colleagues and their communities and explore ways of further enhancing their achievements.

The event will bring together key players involved in workplace action, policy making and campaigning and focus on best practice in the workplace and the challenges lying ahead.

Programme

09:30 Registration, coffee and tea

10:00 Lord Bill Morris Chair's opening remarks

Kay Carberry, TUC Assistant General Secretary, welcome address

Mike Foster MP Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State for International Development*

Dr Syed Asif Altaf, HIV-AIDS Co-ordinator, International Transport Federation

Zuzanna Gorska Global Co-ordinator on HIV-AIDS, International Trade Union Confederation

Daniel Owasu Boatey HIV/AIDS Co-ordinator, Ghana TUC

11.00 Questions from the floor

11:30 Panel discussion: Andy Harvey Education and training consultant; Eleanor Briggs Assistant Director, Policy and Campaigns, National AIDS Trust; Nick Sigler Head of International Relations, Unison; Simon Dubbins Head of International Relations, Unite

12:25 Chair's closing remarks

12.30 Seminar ends, followed by hot buffet lunch

Please confirm your attendance to Tanya Warlock on 020 7467 1357 or email: twarlock@tuc.org.uk If you have any particular access needs please inform Tanya by 16 November.

*to be confirmed